

Case Law Worksheet

Use the worksheet below to organize your legal research on case law.

When you find a case that you think is relevant, make notes in the table below. Write the full name of the case, including what court it's from and the date. Under Case Brief, make point-form notes of the important facts of the case. In the Relevance column, note how this case relates to your situation, what facts are similar and which are not.

Name	Case Brief	Relevance